First National Bank of Chester County offers no interest loans for flood victims

Offer is good for 90 days on maximum loan of $10,000

WEST CHESTER _ First National Bank of Chester County is offering financial help to those who have suffered damage during the recent floods.

“First National realizes the recent flooding has caused an unexpected hardship on many in the area,” said John A. Featherman III, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of First National. “First National is offering our First Cash Line of Credit with no interest as a way to help our many customers and friends.”

The maximum loan amount is $10,000 and the zero percent APR is good for 90 days. After 90 days the APR has a floating rate of WSJ prime-rate plus one percent for the life of the line.

Those eligible for the financial assistance for flood victims are existing FNB deposit customers or those who open a new First National deposit account. For all of the information, contact First National at 877 FNB-0100.

“We’ve been committed to serving the community for more than a century, especially in a time of need,” Featherman said.

First National, a subsidiary of First Chester County Corporation, is the largest independent national bank headquartered in Chester County and provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit organizations, and community service groups.
