First National Bank of Chester County one sponsor of Martin Luther King event

KENNETT SQUARE _ A breakfast is scheduled on Monday, January 15 at the Red Clay Room of the Kennett Fire House in connection with the Martin Luther King holiday.

The featured speaker is Dr. J. Phillip Thompson III. He wrote, "Double Trouble: Black Mayors, Black Communities, and the Call for a Deep Democracy."

Money raised during the breakfast goes to a Martin Luther King memorial and scholarships and grants for local high schools.

Sponsors of the event include First National Bank of Chester County, DNB First, Genesis Health Care, Exelon, Kendal, The Garage, United Way, Herr's Food, Lincoln University and The Parkway Center.

First National, a subsidiary of First Chester County Corporation, is the largest independent national bank headquartered in Chester County and provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit organizations, and community service groups.
