First National Bank of Chester County Sponsors YMCA Splash Learn to Swim Week

West Chester _ First National Bank of Chester County is sponsoring YMCA Splash Learn to Swim Week, a program that provides one week of free beginner swim lessons and water safety skills to prepare kids for the summer season. More than 300 children who may not have access to swim lessons participate annually.

“First National has supported the YMCA of the Brandywine Valley as an organization that works together for the betterment of the community,” said John A. Featherman III, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of First National Bank. “This is a worthwhile community program and the bank is proud to support it”.

“Learning to swim at the YMCA is a journey led by trained, compassionate staff that encourages children to build confidence in the water,” said Lee Bunting, Executive Director of the West Chester Area YMCA.” “First National’s support allows the YMCA to offer many programs, like Splash Learn to Swim Week to help build stronger communities.

Splash Learn to Swim Week takes place at YMCA’s across Chester County and the United States. For information about swim lessons for all ages, and all YMCA programs, visit www.ymcabwv.org
