Lynn Mander, Chief Investment Officer of First National Wealth Management, schedules three speaking engagements

She will speak at the Chester County Economic Development Council, Chester County Community Foundation and West Chester Lions Club

WEST CHESTER _ Lynn Mander, Chief Investment Officer of First National Wealth Management, will be giving financial programs at three community events in the coming month.

Mander will be part of a panel discussing the region's economic outlook at the Chester County Economic Development Council on January 25. She will give a presentation on the economy at the Lions Club event in West Chester on January 29 and then be part of a panel for the Chester County Community Foundation's investment seminar on February 12 at the West Chester Country Club.

"Lynn is the perfect person to make these presentations. She has worked with major Wall Street firms and is a respected professional among her peers," said John A. Featherman III, Chairman and Chief Executive Office of First National. "She has taken leadership roles with the prestigious international Chartered Financial Analyst Institute."

Mander, a senior vice president at First National, holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and is a Certified Financial Planner. She has worked in the financial services industry for 31 years, including 15 years as an analyst and institutional salesperson with major Wall Street firms and 15 years as a portfolio manager.

Mander is a past president and board member of the CFA Society of Philadelphia. She is an active volunteer with CFA Institute; serving on the international Standards of Practice Council, grading CFA examinations for the past ten years and as a member of the Council of Examiners, which writes and prepares the CFA Examinations.

She has served on the Investment and Finance Committees of Episcopal Community Services and is a founding board member of Aiding Romania's Children, providing home health care to children in Romania with HIV/AIDS.

First National, a subsidiary of First Chester County Corporation, is the largest independent national bank headquartered in Chester County and provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit organizations, and community service groups.
