First National Bank sponsors Chester County Pops tribute to Charles Swope

WEST CHESTER_ First National Bank of Chester County is sponsoring the Chester County Pops tribute to Charles E. Swope. Mr. Swope was employed at First National for more than 30 years and held the positions of Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The concert series is entitled The Golden Age of Pops: Dedicated to the Life and Legacy of Dr. Charles E. Swope.

“We are proud to sponsor this series,” said John A. Featherman III, First National’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “Mr. Swope provided outstanding leadership to First National for many years.”

The upcoming concerts will be at Henderson High School, West Chester, on February 1 and Unionville High School on February 2. Concerts have already been performed at Oxford High School and Phoenixville High School.
