First National Bank schedules grand opening of Downingtown branch at Manor and Pennsylvania avenues

Prizes, food and special events scheduled on Saturday, April 26

DOWNINGTOWN _ First National Bank of Chester County is holding a grand opening of its new Downingtown branch on Saturday, April 26 from 10:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

“We’re excited about our new Downingtown facility. The branch is centrally located for many of our customers,” said John A. Featherman III, Chairman and Chief Executive of First National. “We encourage all area residents to join us on April 26.”

During the grand opening celebration visitors will have a chance to win a plasma television and an 8-month CD at 8 percent. Food will be available during the event and local author Bruce Mowday will be signing his books local history books, including Downingtown.

The Downingtown branch offers customers a drive-up teller window, a drive-up ATM machine, ample parking, extended service hours and a night depository drop.

The new Downingtown branch will be located at 99 Manor Avenue, the corner of Pennsylvania and Manor avenues. The staff at the new bank includes Bradley Vitko as Branch Manager, Jackie Moretti as Assistant Branch Manager, Cheryl Parker as Customer Service Representative, and Lisa Lee as a Teller. This staff combined offers more than 16 years of experience with First National Bank.

First National, a subsidiary of First Chester County Corporation, is the largest independent national bank headquartered in Chester County and provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit organizations, and community service groups.
