

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April 28, 2008

For more information contact:

Brent C. Pelleschi

Public Relations Manager

484/881-4104 – direct

Brent.pelleschi@1nbank.com

First National Bank holds grand opening of new Longwood branch

Prizes, food and special events scheduled on Saturday, May 3

LONGWOOD – First National Bank of Chester County is holding a grand opening of its new Longwood branch on Saturday, May 3 from 10:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

“Our new Longwood branch is in the middle of a thriving and growing section of Chester County,” said John A. Featherman III, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of First National. “We’re looking forward to serving our customers in the area and we invite them to join us for our grand opening celebration.”

During the grand opening celebration, visitors will have a chance to win a 50” plasma television and an 8-month CD at 8 percent. Food will be available during the event, as well as games and prizes, and a giant moon bounce for the kids. The Unionville High School baseball team will be on hand to play ball with customers, and thank the bank for the $5000 donation for their new scoreboard, being unveiled on Friday, May 2. Local author Bruce Mowday will be signing his local history books, including Along the Brandywine River, and his book on the Battle of Brandywine.

Located on Baltimore Pike just south of Longwood Gardens, this modern facility will incorporate First National’s new building design, showcased first by the Oxford Branch.

The staff of the new Longwood branch includes Branch Manager, and Kennett Square resident Melvin Valentin-Agron, who has been with First National for more than 11 years, serving as an Assistant Vice President, and Branch Manager for the West Chester based Matlack branch.

The supporting staff for the branch consists of Matt Minton as the assistant branch manager, Megan Holbrook as customer service representative, and teller Elmer Nunez. Together with Valentin-Agron, this Kennett staff offers customers over 16 years of First National experience.

First National, a subsidiary of First Chester County Corporation, is the largest independent national bank headquartered in Chester County and provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit organizations, and community service groups. For more information, visit www.1nbank.com.

###