First National Bank of Chester County Donates $10,000 to Upland Country Day School

WEST CHESTER _ First National Bank of Chester County recently presented a $10,000 check as part of the Educational Improvement Tax Credit program to the Upland Country Day School. Upland Country Day School is a non-sectarian, independent day school educating boys and girls in Pre-Kindergarten through grade 9. Upland is located in the beautiful countryside of Kennett Square, at 420 West Street Road.

“First National Bank of Chester County is pleased to be able to support Upland Country Day School with our donation. We are pleased to support an institution that continues to encourage our youth to become vital members in their communities. Upland strives, and succeeds to unite a balance of academics, arts, athletics and citizenship in our future leaders. ” said Valerie Reitz-Hector, Vice President of Small Business Lending for First National Bank of Chester County.

First Chester County Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiary, First National Bank of Chester County, is a financial institution with 23 branch offices located in Chester, Delaware, Lancaster and Cumberland counties. Founded in 1863, First National Bank of Chester County is the eighth oldest national bank in the country. First National provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, government entities, non profit organizations, and community service groups.

Wealth Management and Trust Services are provided through First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.

Mortgage services are provided through American Home Bank, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.
